The Tron version of Atari's Super Sprint with laser sword sounds.

Not bad.. Great for getting around fast, or long distance travel.. yeah no it isnt even funny anymore that this is the kind of Stuff that gets on steam now.. makes me♥♥♥♥♥faster than my boyfriend. Game was really fun, im hoping the extra levels will be available.

Considering the game and the mechanics, it's rather difficult to play if you have a limited amount of space. When the ultra came out all my weapons went flying and i couldn't get to them.

Also, I'm hoping more weapons will be available, like if you get 10 head kills you get a 308, 15, 30-06, 20 BMG, etc. etc. An AR would be nice because no recoil, etc etc.

A rebuild option might be nice, like in CoD. If you get free time, repair the broken pieces. This especially since the ultra breaks everything up so quickly.

Can't strain enough, more weapons.... Enjoyable game made by one programmer. Creepy atmosphere, good puzzles and a good story.
